Hymns

Congregational singing

1. PROCESSIONAL HYMN — SS&S 306

1 There shall be showers of blessing:
This is the promise of love;
There shall be seasons refreshing,
Sent from the Savior above.

Refrain:
Showers of blessing,
Showers of blessing we need:
Mercy-drops round us are falling,
But for the showers we plead.

2 There shall be showers of blessing,
Precious reviving again;
Over the hills and the valleys,
Sound of abundance of rain. [Refrain]

3 There shall be showers of blessing:
Send them upon us, O Lord;
Grant to us now a refreshing,
Come and now honor Thy Word. [Refrain]

4 There shall be showers of blessing:
Oh, that today they might fall,
Now as to God we're confessing,
Now as on Jesus we call! [Refrain]

3. OPENING HYMN — SS&S 307

1 God is here, and that to bless us
With the Spirit's quickening power;
See, the cloud already bending
Waits to drop the grateful shower.

Let it come, . . O Lord, we pray Thee!
Let the shower. . of blessing fall;
We are wait - - ing, we are waiting;
Oh revive . . the hearts of all !

2 God is here ! we feel His presence
In this consecrated place ;
But we need the soul refreshing
Of His free, unbounded grace.

3 God is here ! oh, then believing,
Bring to Him our one desire,
That His love may now be kindled,
Till its flame each heart inspire.

4 Saviour, grant the prayer we offer
While in simple faith we bow ;
From the windows of Thy mercy
Pour us out a blessing now.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

4. Introduction

(The congregation remains standing as the bride and bridegroom stand before the Priest, and the Priest says:)

Dear people of God, we have come together in the presence of God, to witness and to celebrate the marriage of AARON and PRECIOUS, to ask His blessing on them, and to share in their joy. Our Lord Jesus Christ was Himself a guest at a wedding in Cana of Galilee and blessed this way of life, and through His Spirit He is with us now.

The Scriptures teach us that marriage is a gift of God in creation and a means of His grace, a holy mystery in which man and woman become one flesh. It is God's purpose that, as husband and wife give themselves to each other in love throughout their lives, they shall be united in their love as Christ is united with His Church.

Marriage is given primarily that husband and wife may comfort and help each other, living faithfully together in need and in plenty, in sorrow and in joy. It is also given, that with delight and tenderness, they may know each other in love, and through the joy of their bodily union, may strengthen the union of their hearts and lives. Lastly, it is given that they may have children and be blessed in caring for them and bringing them up in accordance with God's will, to His praise and glory.

In marriage, husband and wife belong to one another, and are linked to each other's family and they begin a new life together in the community. This is a way of life that all should honour; and it must not be undertaken carelessly, lightly or selfishly but reverently, responsibly, and after serious thought. Into this way of life AARON and PRECIOUS come now to be joined. If anyone of you can show just cause why they may not lawfully be married you must now declare it.

5. DECLARATION

(The Priest says to the couple:)

AARON and PRECIOUS, the vows you are about to take are to be made in the name of God, and I charge you both, as you will answer before God who is the judge of all and who knows all the secrets of our hearts: that if either of you knows a reason why you may not lawfully marry, you must declare it now.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

5. Declaration & 6. Marriage

(If there is no impediment declared, the Priest continues. The congregation sits while the couple stand, and the Priest says to the bridegroom:)

AARON, of your own free choice, will you take PRECIOUS to be your wife?
The bridegroom answers: I will.

Will you love her, comfort her, honour and protect her, in sickness and in health, in poverty and prosperity and, forsaking all others, be faithful to her as long as you both shall live?
The bridegroom answers: I will.

(The Priest says to the bride:)

PRECIOUS, of your own free choice, will you take AARON to be your husband?
The bride answers: I will.

Will you love him, comfort him, honour and protect him, obey and serve him, in sickness and in health, in poverty and prosperity and, forsaking all others, be faithful to him as long as you both shall live?
The bride answers: I will.

MARRIAGE

(i) Then the Priest asks:

Who gives this woman to be married to this man?
(The father or the representative of the family comes out and says "I do". He then hands over the Bride to the Priest.)

(ii) The Priest receiving the bride from the hand of her father, shall cause the man to take the woman by his right hand, facing each other. The bridegroom says:)

I, AARON, take you, PRECIOUS, to be my wife, to have and to hold from this day forward: for better for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, until we are parted by death according to God's holy law. This is my solemn vow.
(iii) They loose hands.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

The Vows & Exchange of Rings

(The bride takes the bridegroom's right hand in hers, and says:)

I, PRECIOUS, take you, AARON, to be my husband, to have and to hold from this day forward; for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, until we are parted by death according to God's holy law: This is my solemn vow.

They loose hands.

The Priest: And what token do you share to represent your love and commitment to each other?

(iv) The Priest receives the ring(s). Holding up the ring, he says:)

The ring is the symbol of wholeness and perfection. It is made of gold which is a precious and durable metal. What better representation of your feelings for each other!

Heavenly Father, by your blessing, let these rings be to AARON and PRECIOUS a symbol of unending love and faithfulness, to remind them of the vow and covenant which they have made this day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(v) The bridegroom places the ring on the fourth finger of the bride's left hand, and holding it there, says:)

I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage and a token of my love and fidelity to you. With my body I honour you, all that I am I give to you and all that I have I share with you, within the love of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

(vi) If rings are exchanged, they loose hands and the bride places a ring on the fourth finger of the bridegroom's left hand, and holding it there, says:)

I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage and a token of my love and fidelity to you. With my body I honour you, all that I am I give to you and all that I have I share with you, within the love of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

Blessing of the Couple

(vii) The bride and bridegroom kneel while the congregation remains standing. The Priest says:)

Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all, giver of spiritual grace, and author of everlasting life: send Your blessing upon AARON and PRECIOUS whom we bless in Your name that living faithfully together they may fulfill the vow and covenant they have made of which the ring given and received is a token and pledge and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together and live according to Your laws; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(viii) The Priest declares:)

Now that AARON and PRECIOUS have given their consent and made their vows to each other before God and this congregation, with the joining of hands and the giving and receiving of ring, in the name of God, I declare that they are husband and wife.

(ix) The Priest joins their right hands together and says:)

Those whom God has joined together, let no man put asunder. Amen.

(x) The Priest blesses them:)

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit bless, preserve and keep you; The Lord pour upon you the riches of His grace that you may faithfully live together and receive the blessings of eternal life. Amen.

(xi) The Priest then invites and says to the parents:)

As AARON and PRECIOUS enter a new life together, will you, their parents, give them your blessing in the presence of this congregation?
The parents pray for the couple: "May God bless you both. Amen."

(xii) The congregation stands. The Priest may ask:)

You, as friends and families, have come to witness this exchange of vows. Will you do all in your power to support this marriage now and in the years ahead?
The people reply: We will.

(xiii) The congregation remains standing; the husband and wife kneel, and the Priest blesses them.)

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

7. The Acclamation

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully grant you the riches of His grace, that you may please Him both in body and soul, and living together in faith and love, may receive the blessings of eternal life. Amen.

These acclamations may be used.

(i) The parents of the bridegroom or their representatives will move forward.)

Priest: In the name of God and in the presence of this congregation we hand PRECIOUS, now Mrs. PRECIOUS ESON AARON, to you as a full member of your family. Will you promise on behalf of your family to continue to uphold them in your prayer and give them your moral support?

The Parents of the Groom: We promise in the name of God.

(The Priest then prays for the family.)

Eternal God, creator and sustainer of us all, give your grace to the family of AARON. Grant them that in the years ahead they may live together in the love, joy and peace of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

8. MINISTRY OF THE WORD

a. Psalm 128

1 Blessed are all those who fear the Lord, ♦
and walk in his ways.
2 You shall eat the fruit of the toil of your hands; ♦
it shall go well with you, and happy shall you be. [R] 3 Your wife within your house shall be like a fruitful vine; ♦ your children round your table,
like fresh olive branches.
4 Thus shall the one be blest ♦ who fears the Lord. [R] 5 The Lord from out of Zion bless you, ♦ that you may see Jerusalem in prosperity all the days of your life.
6 May you see your children's children, ♦ and may there be peace upon Israel.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

The Readings

FIRST LESSON

Genesis 2:18–25 (King James Version)

18 And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.
19 And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.
20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.
21 And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;
22 And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.
23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.
24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.
25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

SECOND LESSON

Ephesians 5:21–32

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.
23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.
24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING

Hymns for the Service

9. HYMN FOR EXHORTATION

"God Give Us a Christian Home"

1. God, give us Christian homes!
Homes where the Bible is loved and taught,
Homes where the Master's will is sought,
Homes crowned with beauty Your love has wrought;
God, give us Christian homes;
God, give us Christian homes!

2. God, give us Christian homes!
Homes where the father is true and strong,
Homes that are free from the blight of wrong,
Homes that are joyous with love and song;
God, give us Christian homes;
God, give us Christian homes!

3. God, give us Christian homes!
Homes where the mother, in caring quest,
Strives to show others Your way is best,
Homes where the Lord is an honored guest;
God, give us Christian homes;
God, give us Christian homes!

4. God, give us Christian homes!
Homes where the children are led to know
Christ in His beauty who loves them so,
Homes where the altar fires burn and glow;
God, give us Christian homes;
God, give us Christian homes!

13. HYMN FOR PRAYER FOR THE COUPLE

All kneeling — A & M 463

1 O perfect Love, all human thought transcending, lowly we kneel in prayer before thy throne,
that theirs may be the love which knows no ending, whom thou in sacred vow dost join in one.

2 O perfect Life, be thou their full assurance of tender charity and steadfast faith, of patient hope and quiet, brave endurance,
with childlike trust that fears no pain or death.

3 Grant them the joy which brightens earthly sorrow;
grant them the peace which calms all earthly strife;
grant them the vision of the glorious morrow that will reveal eternal love and life.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

14. Concluding Prayer / Benediction

Almighty and Most Merciful Father, the strength of all who put their trust in You: we pray that, as You have brought AARON and PRECIOUS together by Your providence, so You will enrich them by Your grace; that those vows which they have made to one another in Your sight, they may truly and faithfully perform; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty Father, You have created all mankind to glorify You in body and in spirit. Give these Your children joy in one another, as living temples of the Holy Spirit, and bring them by this joy to know and share in Your creative and redeeming love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eternal God, true and loving Father, in holy marriage you make your servants one. May their life together witness to Your love in this troubled world; may unity overcome division, forgiveness heal injury, and joy triumph over sorrow; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We praise You, Father, that you have made all things, and hold all things in being. In the beginning you created the universe, and made mankind in Your own likeness: because it was not good for them to be alone you created them male and female; and in marriage you join man and woman as one flesh, teaching us that what you have united may never be divided. We praise you that You have made this holy mystery a symbol of the marriage of Christ with his Church, and an image of Your eternal covenant with Your people. And we praise You that You have made this man and this woman, who come before You as partners and heirs together of Your promises.
